REPUBLIC SET UP ON RHINE

PINCHOT TELLS HOW RUM FLOW MAY BE ENDED

Is Not Satisfied with Coolidge Plan.

BY GRAPTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania, who challenged President Coolidge on prohibition enforcement a week ago and who was silent at yesterday's White House conference of the governors of states, is not entirely satisfied with the President's program for making enforcement more effective.

The Pennsylvania governor, whose call upon the federal government to suppress the "whisky rebellion" was acted upon by many political leaders as an indication that Mr. Pinchot is a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, issued a statement today in which he declared that the White House program did not go far enough to meet the issue.

Wants Rigid Enforcement.

In contrast to the White House plan for enforcement by persuasion, Gov. Pinchot proposes enforcement by more rigid regulation. He does not criticize the President's program as far as it goes, and he admits that the states cannot thrust all the responsibility upon the federal government. The cooperation asked for from the states by the President, Gov. Pinchot says, will be cordially given, but he insists that the federal government must exert the authority to prevent the leakage of liquor from known sources of supply, and that so long as the government fails to exercise that authority effectively, the states are almost powerless to deal with the resulting distribution of illicit liquor to the individual.

Liquor Flow Continues.

"The request of the President for cooperation, made to the governors yesterday," Gov. Pinchot said, "will be most cordially met in Pennsylvania. We have been working with officials and press as he suggested. The state law enforcement officers already offer the closest cooperation with the federal enforcement officials. But since the flood of illegal liquor still continues something more is required.

The conference of yesterday, not having discussed the practical details of how to enforce the law, I venture, in pursuance of the President's suggestion, to point out concretely how, in my opinion, the sources of illegal domestic liquor can be dried up.

"The present cry of lawlessness is utterly unnecessary. The federal government has the right to give or refuse a permit to make or dispose of beer, liquor, or alcohol in any form, and to prescribe its conditions.

Conditions on Permits.

"If the federal government would write into each of its permits to distill, store, transport, store, or utilize alcohol certain simple conditions it would make law breaking as difficult as to be practically impossible under anything short of actual collusion between lawbreakers and law enforcement officials.

"The provisions intended to prevent the distilling, which were written into the internal revenue law, supply in itself nearly every condition necessary to be embodied in a permit in order to bring the sources of illegal liquor under control.

"Among the conditions should be: Duration of the permit when the distiller is caught violating the law, suspension of manufacture and access to all parts of the plant day or night by state and national enforcement officials; products to be shipped only at specified times and only after inspection and stamping at the plant. Such a system would put an end to the larger part of our trouble.

Main Sources of Supply.

"The main sources of the present flood of illegal drink are breweries, distilleries, producing plants, liquor in bond and smuggled. Smuggling can be dealt with only by the national government. It is a problem, by its nature, which it takes the enforcement of laws to solve. The United States revenue service, the old Internal Revenue Bureau, will be stopped at the border and the whisky rebellion will be ended.

AN HEIR AT LARGE

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)

PART II—CHAPTER I.

From the doctor's office, Rasher had obtained

some definite impressions about Dr. Clemen, as well as some information. The doctor had come to the institute about a year before as assistant to

Dr. Rasher, but at the death of the latter he had been invited to come to the head of the institution. Since then he had in-augmented many automatic changes.

"He's got the women," said Rasher, "they all fall for him. There's a kind of mystery about him that attracts them, and besides, he can be mighty charismatic when he wants to. I don't see how it can be done out queer at times."

With this as a starting point, Rasher prepared for his subsequent moves. There were two courses he could follow. He could rush in to the doctor's office and accuse Dr. Clemen of having held up the letters and telegrams he had sent to Mary Brook. Or he could delay until he had obtained all possible information about Dr. Clemen's career previous to his connection with the institution. If there were dark spots on his record they might be useful to know about.

The latter seemed the wiser course. If he confronted the doctor with charges based solely upon suspicion, Mary Brook would probably side with the doctor in some situation of purpose he still believed

After several mysterious long distance calls to New York, Rasher himself hastened there, and was soon in conference with a man whose name was known to the world over.

Meanwhile, at the sanitarium, Dr. Clemen was enjoying pleasant relief following Mrs. Thornberry's departure. Her suspicions had irritated him. He did not believe the real sufficient grounds to accuse Bacon even should she go to him. Now he was seated on the veranda overlooking his domain with Mary.

"I'll be sure to get it," he said, "I'll be sure to

Rivals Meet in Mexico; Five Killed

Mexico City, Oct. 21.—(United Press.)—Five persons are dead, and about twenty wounded following a day of street clashes between rival political factions here.

The situation is tense, and further clashes are feared.

Police, assisted by detachments of soldiers, handled the situation in a forceful manner, and prevented the disorders from spreading.

Clashes, which led to the shooting, occurred in various parts of the capital between demonstrators, supporters of Gen. B. Plutarco Calles, candidate for president, and the adherents of Adolfo de la Huerta, former secretary of the treasury and rival presidential candidate.

Heckle Each Other.

Fighting began when the rival factions began to heckle each other during the parade. Political arguments eventually led to revolver and rifle shots.

The march of the Calles supporters probably was the largest labor demonstration ever seen here. The streets were a sea of color, with all the workers' organizations, which are behind Calles, carrying banners, national flags and red and black labor streamers.

Beginning at 9 a. m., the parade continued until 5 p. m. Small groups were still on the march tonight, but police and soldiers had succeeded in quieting the disorderly elements.

Statement by Calles.

After the parade, Gen. Calles issued a statement saying he would defend the principles incorporated in the constitution, and specifically including article 27, the clause nationalizing oil resources, which has caused so much controversy between Mexico and the United States.

"Some have said my candidature is unacceptable to the United States and to European countries," Calles said.

"That does not worry me. I have no intention of being only a candidate to the free people of my country. Those who think otherwise are those same traitors who, on the occasion, went to Europe to ask a prize to govern them."

Two About to Wed, Die by Gas; Mystery

The young romance of Arthur Thorn, 22 years old, of 18 South Leavitt street, and Miss Bernice Halver, 17 years old, of 26 South Loomis street, ended in death by gas for both some time early Sunday morning.

Findings of their bodies gave the Dr. Plauton street, while a mystery that has evidence of accident or of murder and suicide. An inquest will be held this morning in Purcell's undertaking rooms at 1244 Madison street.

The bodies were found in a small bedroom at 18 South Loomis street by Mrs. Selma Linberg, aunt of the dead girl. The windows and door were tightly closed and a gas jet was open. Thorn's body was sitting upright in a chair.

Hinted at Larkins Love.

"I left them sitting on a divan in the living room at midnight," said Mrs. Linberg. "This morning I awakened and smelled gas. It was coming from Bernice's room. I broke down the door."

According to police Miss Halver came to Chicago a month ago from her home on a farm near Palmer, Mich. She had a position in a hospital, but gave it up two weeks ago. It was while in the hospital that she met Thorn, who worked for the Independent Ice company.

"They were to be married next Thursday," said Mrs. Linberg. "They were very much in love."

Dead Woman Married.

From other sources the police learned that Thorn was "supposed to be married." His home was in Joplin, Mo. An effort is being made to locate his supposed widow.

SCHOOLS
BRUNT OF SHORTAGE

Enrollment Grows 125%
in Ten Years.

It is the second article in a series of studies by Mr. Evans of the shortage in the public schools, the city's most important social problem.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Chicago's most significant growth in the last ten years has been in the schools. The trend has been for the schools to continue in school longer than before; the average pupil is getting more years of schooling, a greater percentage is pursuing its studies through the high schools and is surviving in the institutions of higher learning and universities.

In the last ten years the number of pupils in the primary grades grew 50 per cent. In the grammar grades the growth was 35 per cent. The high schools, however, made "Cass" figures with a growth of no less than 125 per cent in membership. The city has been both social and educational. Population has come from the general educational movement, in the movement of the modern type of high school, especially in the vocational courses.

Increases in Thirty Years.

Here is an interesting tabulation showing back thirty years and showing comparative growths between 1890
and 1920:

	Per cent increase.
City's population	145
Primary membership in:
Primary grades	90
Grammar grades	137
High elementary schools	153
High schools	200
Adult night school	200
High regular day schools	200

The phenomenal growth at the top has increased the load on the school system all the way down, for the increasing stream into high school means swelling of all grades below. Not less in percentage, but in sheer numbers the progression into the high grades in the last decade has shown tremendous growth. From 1912-'13 to 1922-'23 the following increases in average daily membership were registered:

High School Opened.

In 1913 only 74 per cent of all the pupils in public day schools were in the high school. But in 1923 the high schools had 44.13 per cent of all the day school pupils. The high school enrollment grew from 1912-13 to 1922-23, the following increases in average daily membership were registered:

Kindergarten 19.7 per cent.
Primary grades 4.50
Grammar department 23.68
High schools 25.07
Adult night school 35.98

Marked fluctuations occur in the yearly increases in school attendance.

Theoretically, the public school membership in Chicago grows at the rate of 40 a day or 5,000 a year. This is at the rate of about a classroomful a day. But this "normal" rate seems to be little more than theory of late years. In 1913 the school increase was at the rate of 25 a day; in 1914, 18 a day; in 1915, only 4 a day; in 1916,
4 a day; in 1917 it rose up to 100 a day and last year it dropped to 75. It is now running at the rate of about 60
a day.

New Factors Involved.

Marked trends are reflected in the yearly increases. Infant mortality increases or decreases and it shows a few years later in the school statistics; the birth rate rises as it did soon after the war, due to hurried marriages, and it falls as it did later through the armistice period, and a few years later the result is seen in kindergarten and first grade attendance. The child labor cru-shers up the compulsory education law. This tends to increase the school load. An influenza epidemic oc-

SIOUX CITY DIDN'T GET TASTE FROM BIRKENHEAD HIP

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—[Special.]— Dr. R. N. Van Horn, chairman of the lecture committee at Morningside college, under whose auspices Lord Birkenhead, English statesman, lectured in Grace Methodist church last week, declined the distinguished visitor drank liquor or offered liquor to others in the basement of the church, as charged by a W. C. T. U. committee in resolutions adopted yesterday.

He says he was with Lord Birkenhead from the time he entered the college and church grounds until he left and that there was no drinking.

cur; the year's attendance drops off.
Economic fluctuations are reflected.
The depression in 1914-15 after the tariff act sent children into school because they had no jobs; the slump of recent years is reflected in a high increase in school attendance. In times of business depression, total school enrollment almost invariably grows. Also a period of great prosperity increases the demand for higher schooling.

By districts, the fluctuations are even more marked. The shifting of population requires exercise of great care in locating new and expensive buildings.
Fifteen, good roads and bungalow colonies are resulting in an overload on some schools whose capacity was expected to be sufficient for years to come. The building of a few large apartment houses in a short time often results in the overcrowding of a school in which before there were plenty of seats.

Subway Would Alter Phase.

If a subway were ready to be thrown into operation tomorrow, many schools within a short time probably would be thrown out of adjustment, for a rapid transit inevitably would send the densest zone of population still farther from the loop, and at that it has moved quite a distance in the last ten years.

"And right there is perhaps the hardest nut that would require cracking, if a double building program were financed by more taxes to take up all the present seating shortage. If dispersion is to be the trend in population change, where should new buildings be located so that ten and fifteen years hence they would be of service, remembering that the present shortage is at its peak in districts that are now most congested and where population shifts are even now going on?"

GREEK REVOLT
NEAR; DICTATORS
READY TO FLEE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
ATHENS, Oct. 21.—Greece stands on the threshold of a rebellion against the revolutionary chiefs who dethroned the late King Constantine. Reports insist that the military leaders who have been dictating the government for a year are preparing to flee from Athens tonight aboard a destroyer anchored at Piræus with full steam up.

Hundreds of army officers have organized to oust the military dictators, whom they accuse of maintaining a reign of terror.

The dictators have barricaded the government buildings. Machine guns swamp all approaches. The dictators are said to have grafted huge sums for secret expenses.

SPAIN REJECTS
LONDON DICTUM
ON TANGIER RULE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
MADRID, Oct. 21.—The Spanish government has decided to reject the Tangier project drawn up in London.
The censor today permitted all Madrid newspapers bitterly to criticize the project, particularly the plan that Spain transfer to the French sultan the police authority of Tangier. The censor is the government's mouthpiece.

The censor permitted El Sol to say that the Paris conference was not advised because of the sickness of the Spanish delegate, but because of Italy's pretension to participate with the same rights as the other three powers.

Czech President Receives Royal Honor in London

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
LONDON, Oct. 21.—[Tribune Radio.]—President Masaryk of Czecho-Slovakia was accorded an enthusiastic welcome when he arrived in London from the continent tonight. He was met by members of the diplomatic corps and representatives of King George and the cabinet. President Masaryk expressed delight in being in an English speaking country again.
He drove to Claridge's in a royal car.

French Airman, Scorned, Kills Woman, Shoots Self

Houston, Tex., Oct. 21.—Desperate over the refusal of pretty Louise Floquet, divorced wife of Raoul Warner, former Houston policeman, to accept his attentions, George Raymond Vexnet, member of the French air forces during the war, shot twice and almost instantly killed the girl, then turned the revolver upon himself. He is expected to die. The girl had just returned Vexnet's picture and some letters telling him she was "through with him forever."

MORE BONES ADD
TO MYSTERY OF CALIFORNIA CASE

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 21.—Deputy sheriffs today found a large kettle containing some charred bones in a cotton sack of a house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. E. Drew Clark, who are held in the county jail here in connection with the disappearance of George E. Schick, wealthy real estate man, on Feb. 7.

The bones are said to be similar to some found near the Clark home Saturday, but because of their condition Dr. H. A. Thompson, city bacteriologist, has been unable to tell whether they are animal or human bones.

District Attorney Kempley today related further details of Mrs. Schick's purported confession. Mrs. Schick, the district attorney said, gave Clark $4,000 the day after her husband's disappearance, saying that Clark had told her he had borrowed that much money to Schick previous to her husband's departure for Mexico.

REALTY 'PONZI' IS NABBED AGAIN ON
WIDOW'S CHARGE

Raymond W. Ferguson, a real estate operator whose enterprises gained him
the nickname of "Ponzi" about a year ago, met with the law a second time yesterday in Wilmette. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Justice D. M. Mickey and Mrs. Mary
K. Mercer of 949 Windsor street, Chicago.

At the time he was apprehended Mr.
Ferguson was busy exploiting the country spaces near Wilmette to prospective buyers.

"O. I say now, this is all wrong," he said, "I am quite sure, sir, there has been a mistake." But he was taken to the station.

Mrs. Mercer said Ferguson had persuaded her to buy ten lots in Gary.
"He advised me to build there," she said. "I did. Then he told me to put the places in his name and he would sell them. I am a widow and he said it would be more simple. He got about $10,000 and kept the money."

Justice Mickey will hear the case tomorrow.

LLOYD GEORGE
SEES PARIS COIN
BACK RHINELAND

Knew Ruhr Invasion Was to Break Up Reich.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—When shown press dispatches from Aix la Chapelle tonight telling of a Rhineland separatist movement, David Lloyd George declared there was no doubt "there was French money behind it."

From the first, he added, "he had believed that the French invasion of the Ruhr was intended primarily to force a breaking up of the reich."

"But," he remarked, "there is no reparation in that."

Visits Lincoln Birthplace.

The birthplace of Abraham Lincoln at Hodgenville, Ky., was visited today by Mr. Lloyd George, showing the greatest interest in the log cabin and all landmarks on the old farm, which now is a national park. Mr. Lloyd George traveled about the place and asked a running fire of questions concerning the early life of the man who is his ideal.

At the Hodgenville, public square the former premier stopped in front of the old court house to inspect the monument of Lincoln and was received by citizens and school children, the latter singing "God Save the King" and presenting the visitor with flowers.

Over the rough country road, Mr.
Lloyd George went by automobile to the farm with its old log fence surrounding. He entered the granite memorial building to inspect the log house within. Carefully examining the small structure of logs and clay.

SHELBY, MONTANA,
IS RISING AGAIN
AFTER THE COUNT

Shelby, Mont., which was knocked out in the fifteen round fight that left Tommy Gibbons and Jack Dempsey still standing on their feet, is "boming back." General Manager Leon Shaw of the Billings Gazette, arrived in Chicago yesterday to announce that the dawn of prosperity has again been sighted on the Montana horizon.

"Last week," declared Mr. Shaw, "a new bank was opened in Shelby to take the place of the two that went broke in promoting the fight."

He opines that the rest of Montana is facing exceptionally well, with bumper crops of coal, copper, lumber, sugar beets, beans, corn, steers, and tourists. What is said to be the largest bituminous coal deposit in the United States will be tapped by a branch line of the Northern Pacific, now under construction. The Montana and Wyoming railroad is being built between Cas-per and Miles City.

built without the aid of nails, he peered through chinks in the wall.

Walks About the Farm.

He descended the elevation on which the memorial building stands to the spring, which, half hidden in a rock cave, supplied water to the Lincoln family more than 100 years ago.
Later he walked about the farm, examining all objects of interest, even the old tree under which the boy Abraham is said to have played until 6 years of age, when his father moved to another section.

Returning by the special train to Louisville, Mr. Lloyd George remained quietly at the home of Judge Bingham. He will leave here early tomorrow and go to Indianapolis where he will speak tomorrow night.

6,000 DOCTORS ASSEMBLE HERE FOR CONGRESS

World's Noted Surgeons to Attend Clinica.

Distinguished leaders in the medical profession will be among the 6,000 doctors who assemble in Chicago today to attend the first sessions of the clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons. The convention will be held in the Congress hotel during the next few days.

Many interesting developments are expected from the surgeons in this, the thirtieth annual gathering. There will be clinics in Orchestra hall, in the Auditorium theater, and in Chicago's leading hospitals and laboratories. Speeches, conferences, and discussions will be held throughout the meetings.

Largest Meeting Ever Held.
Doctors from all parts of the United States and Canada will attend. Many noted specialists and surgeons from the country are expected. The meeting will be the largest ever held by the college.

The first session this morning will be held by Dr. Harvey Cushing of Boston, retiring president of the college. The speakers will be Dr. Franklin H. Martin of Chicago, director general of the college; Dr. John B. McKenna of New Brunswick, Canada; the Rev. C. H. McMillen, S. J., of Milwaukee, president of the Catholic Hospital association; Dr. R. W. Williamson of Chicago, and others. Dr. Martin will present a list of hospitals that have met the standards fixed by the American College of Surgeons. There are 1,176 hospitals on the list. Other addresses will be made this afternoon. Nursing will be discussed at one of the sessions by James Brown, head of the Canadian National Association of Trained Nurses.

Held Inauguration Tonight.
This evening at Orchestra hall Dr. Albert J. Ochsner of Chicago will be inaugurated as president of the American College of Surgeons. The address of welcome will be made by Dr. Allen B. Kanavel, and Dr. Cushing will make his retiring address.

Thirty-two clinics will be held during the five days of the session. Coincident with the opening of the surgeons' congress the second annual National Anesthesia Research society will open in the Auditorium hotel. Many prominent anesthetists will attend the three day session.

GERMANS IN U. S. URGED TO ASSIST STRICKEN NATION

New York, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The 7,500,000 German born residents of the United States were today urged to come to the aid of Germany before it is "overwhelmed in the raging seas of internal troubles and engulfed by the cruel French bayonets which menace the Ruhr and the Rhineland and threaten to split Germany up into a series of independent units."

The call to action was heralded by the Rev. Dr. William Popcke, president of the United German societies, under whose auspices "German day" was celebrated at the Manhattan opera house.

Representatives from German societies in forty-two cities participated in the celebration.

5,000 Hear Plan.

Before 5,000 German descendants the Rev. Mr. Popcke declared that a flaming protest of all German-Americans must be made against the "cruelty of French militarism in the Ruhr" and against the "black shame" on the Rhine, which he characterized as a blot on modern civilization.

He said that the Germans in America must not be content with weak protests but that they would not rest content until those and other matters pertaining to Germany's present helpless condition had been brought to the attention of not only President Coolidge, but to every senator, representative, statesman and politician in the country.

Aids Assistance of U. S.
The protest, declared the speaker, would be addressed in the following terms:

"The German born Americans urge you to focus your immediate attention on Germany's condition. The French reign of terror in the Ruhr and Rhineland must be brought to an end before it is too late."

Subsequently Magistrate Oberwager, who presided, put the following resolution, which was adopted:

"At this celebration of German day the United German societies of New York move that the 7,500,000 German born American citizens be called upon to help Germany in her hour of peril, and their attention be called to the necessity of providing adequate financial assistance to set Germany on her feet before she disintegrates."

Michigan Fires Lay Bare Woods Moonshine Trade

Ontonagon, Mich., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The recent forest fires which have laid waste the white pine district have also laid bare the extent to which the making of illicit whisky has flourished in this region. In three square miles near Ontonagon were found the ruins of six stills abandoned during the forest fires.

HALT DRIVER AS DRUNK; FIND HIS PASSENGER DEAD

New York, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—

After a sedan car signaling along Bronx River parkway had grazed the mud guards of half a dozen other machines today, a motorist sped ahead and halted a traffic policeman, who forced the man driving to stop.

"I'm drunk, but my friend back there is worse off," the driver said when the policeman opened a door. The policeman, unable to arouse the second man lying on the floor of the car, called an ambulance, and it was found the man was dead.

The driver, who said he was Harry Pepper, 23, a broker, was held on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. He said the dead man, his father-in-law, Andrew J. O'Reilly, had been visiting friends and drinking in Tonawanda.

PROFITS TOO BIG FOR WHOLESALE, COAL BODY FINDS

Advocates U. S. Rule in Times of Stress.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Wild wholesale speculation whenever coal shortages have occurred has demonstrated a need for strict government regulation over the entire production and interstate distribution of coal, according to a special report on the wholesale and retail coal trade made public today by the United States coal commission.

The report, which is supplemental to the commission's final report issued several weeks ago, pictures the wholesalers of having made excessive profits. Retailers are given credit for having made only moderate profits on the average during the same period from 1918 to 1922.

Advocate Fred Marquis.
The commission advocates federal legislation, including the power to limit to a definite maximum amount per ton the price that may be taken by one or more wholesalers between the mine and retailer or consumer, thus limiting speculative wholesale sales.

With respect to retail prices, the opinion is expressed that the competitive nature of the retail trade makes regulation of margins and prices unnecessary, except in cases of emergency shortages. The solution of the problem of extortionate charges for retail coal, it is stated, is largely in the hands of local communities.

Excessive profits from wholesale margins of 8 per cent, the figure advocated by the American Wholesale Coal association, permit the entire trade, and particularly the wholesalers handling anthracite, to make exorbitant profits. It is shown that a group of wholesalers handling anthracite at margins averaging 8.7 per cent in 1917 obtained returns of 28.4 per cent on total investment and 44.1 per cent on the proprietor's equity.

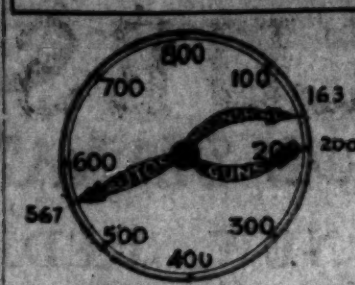

Chicago wholesalers, according to the report, made a return of 12 per cent on their investment in 1922, as against 8.7 per cent in 1921, 48.3 per cent in 1920, 12.7 per cent in 1919, and 18.4 per cent in 1918.

Twenty Chicago retail companies showed a return on their investment in 1922 of 15.5 per cent, as against 8.5 per cent in 1921, 25.5 per cent in 1920, 18.9 per cent in 1919, and 19.19 per cent in 1918.

REAL SALVATION ARMY DOUGHNUTS AID FUND DRIVE

Rifle-bombed cadets, aided by several score club women, will open the second week of the Salvation Army's campaign today by invading loop streets with their contribution boxes. With about $45,000 raised last week in a canvass of a portion of Chicago's business and industrial houses, Chairman De Forest Hulburd, vice president of the Elgin National Watch company, hopes to collect twice as much during the next six days of the House service appeal for $343,000.

The Salvation Army band, aided and abetted by a troupe of singing actresses, will tour the downtown district today. At the Lake street and Michigan avenue signboard, where results of the race by various campaign teams will be displayed, there will be entertainment during the noon hour.

The drive will reach its climax on Thursday, when 800 women, under leadership of Mrs. Frederick Dale Wood, will sell doughnuts on the sidewalk. "Ma" Burdick, who used to cook 'em for the boys in France, will manufacture the "doughnuts" at downtown corners from a field kitchen.

PURE WATER IS TYPHOID BARRIER, BUNDESEN HOLDS

A safe water supply as one of the prime preventives of typhoid fever is emphasized in a bulletin released yesterday by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, commissioner of health.

Importance to Chicago's good health of the diversion of sufficient water from Lake Michigan to guarantee adequate sewage disposal through the drainage canal is brought out in the bulletin by quotations from speeches and pamphlets by Mayor Dever and Dr. Willis O. Nance, trustee of the sanitary district.

Figures tending to show that the health of the city has greatly improved since the use of chlorine in drinking water was introduced in 1919 are presented in the report.

Just sentences for reckless or drunk motor drivers, and compulsory examination to determine the general fitness of all motorists to drive are recommended as the best means of cutting down the automobile death toll.

PROHIBITION AS IS.

The U. S. A. has had over four years of prohibition as is—war and constitutional—and the government is asking the country to give it to get used to it. Others wanted twenty. Kansas didn't need two months. New York will take two centuries, and then some.

The governors think something ought to be done about it and southern governors are just as emphatic in thinking so. The governors of the middle west. None of the governors asked for federal enforcement of the prohibition law. The prohibition amendment, not even the one who most feared the dissolution of the republic in its disapproval of law.

Four years of prohibition as is and it is not as much as it was when it started. It is as the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, irreparable and unenforceable. The protection and guaranty given Negro franchise rights could not be extended from the constitution and cannot be enforced wherever the whites object. The Negro votes where it does not mean black control of government. He does not vote where the whites fear that they would lose control. Franchise rights, fundamentally, are local issues. In this matter the states are sovereign and the federal government makes no provision for enforcement, makes no appropriations and sends out no agents. A state does as it wants to do. No conference of governors says anything and the constitution lives forever.

Prohibition, written into the constitution, as it never should have been, is irreparable and unenforceable. It cannot be taken out, it cannot be enforced where it is not wanted. In Chicago it determined mayor-elect to use all his power to bring about obedience. Widows are supporting their orphan children by making moonshine, which is easier than grubbing for or taking in washing. Our very best people are on the hip and the wine still distills in the small of the night. Mr. Haynes, prohibition agent, says much more to be said.

Shops sell everything from stills to beer caps and inventories in quantity at work to simplify the work of the citizen, police his own. Nature is now at the grape and the apple and corruption is at every agency of government which seeks to impose an unenforceable law upon the will and the habits of protesting people.

Nassau has become plutocratic and Quebec province selling the American citizenship. Smugglers and pirates are on sea and land. Murder and poison go about their work and the governors of states say they can't do anything about it and that federal bureaucracy must swell its ranks and dog the footsteps of every suspected citizen. There you are and there you will be. The days have got the law where it cannot be repealed. The vote have got it where it will not work and all it can do is meddle with the lives and government of the American people to their injury.

Relief by way of the Volstead act, so much heard of in politics, would be only another absurdity woven into the fabric of this great American mistake. All the American people need to do to cap the sheaf is to have an act of congress declare that the constitution is a joke.

That is what modification of the Volstead act means. We do not know what is going to come of it, but probably some day New York will not find any more federal agents within its territory to enforce the eighteenth amendment. Then Georgia can count in its territory to enforce the fourteenth or fifteenth. When congress ceases to appropriate for prohibition enforcement New York will cease to be interested in prohibition. The amendment will be in the constitution, but it won't be in New York, nor perhaps in Chicago.

BRITISH TRADE PRACTICE REFUTES THEORY.

The recent conference of the British commonwealth of nations in London displayed great interest in the subject of imperial preference. A popular theory among the premiers, voiced especially by Gen. Jan Smuts of the Union of South Africa, was that the various colonies or dominions could secure great prosperity to themselves and to England by economic cooperation and trade preference. Efforts were made to induce the mother country to stimulate production of cotton and tobacco in South Africa and buy its supplies there, to buy its wheat and beef supplies from Canada and Australia, and in such manner to build up the prosperity of all independence of the empire at the expense of other countries. We expressed a doubt that practice would conform with this theory. We inclined to the belief that personal profit and economic law rather than abstract British patriotism would determine the issue.

Now we are informed that a Russo-British grain export company has been formed and financed for the purpose of marketing Russian wheat in England. It seems that Canada's wheat, Canada's prosperity, and Canada's political relationship with England have been rudely thrust aside by the group of business men composing the new organization. That is because they are business men. They will go into the market where they can make the best deal and the greatest profit. If, as is this case, it happens to be Russia, so much the worse for Canada. So much for the Smuts theory of making the British political commonwealth an economic commonwealth.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN CRISIS.

As a host caught in the current above a water-fall seems to move with accelerated speed just before it goes over the brink, so the affairs of Germany and France seem now rushing with a headlong impetus toward catastrophe. When the Stresemann government formally withdrew its official support of passive resistance in the Ruhr there was a moment's hope that the beginning of an understanding had at last arrived. M. Poincare had for months declared that he would not consider negotiations with the German government until it withdrew its support of passive resistance. Three weeks ago Chancellor Stresemann felt his self strong enough to take this step. Apparently it accomplished nothing. M. Poincare stood pat. The French press and Germany was only pretending and was still evading. Efforts of the Berlin government to negotiate with the French government were brusquely refused, but it was reported that there were negotiations with the industrialists of the Ruhr. Herr Stresemann was passing through a severe political crisis, and it is a wonder the failure to get results from the abandonment of the passive resistance policy did not destroy him. He has been able to strengthen himself, perhaps because of the French policy rather than in spite of it, and he has now openly defied Poincare and appealed to the world to judge of French intentions.

Whatever the opinion of the world may be—and it is certain it will be a divided opinion—it is clear one of the greatest crises since the seizure of the Ruhr is now at hand. Confronted with a formal declaration that Germany definitely and finally discontinues any and all reparations deliveries and reparations payments, M. Poincare will have to move. Judging by past experience, it will be forward and not back. An ultimatum has been delivered, and he is not the man, we believe, to dodge the issue. Perhaps the French army will soon be on the way to Berlin.

What form events will take we can hardly predict. Lloyd George has just been explaining what the British view of the German problem is, and French policy is not inconsistent with it. Will the British now come away from Cologne? Will the British and even the Belgians part with M. Poincare on measures for further operations in Germany? Chancellor Stresemann has challenged a final decision, and it may come as war or revolution.

Americans who are not partisans can only look upon these developments with discouragement and dismay. We cannot see anything constructive or restorative appearing. We can only see a swift and angry current carrying Europe toward the ghastly flood and tragedy of another world war. That war may not come tomorrow. Exhaustion is about the only ally peace seems to have in Europe. But whether it come tomorrow or another day, a new war is in the brewing. Revolution in Germany may retard or accelerate its preparation. The dismemberment of central Europe may postpone it or divert it for the time being. But the forces which control and direct the policies of western Europe will bring forth another great war if Europe continues to be dominated by them.

GIVE TRAFFIC SIGNALS A CHANCE.

Numerous complaints about the traffic signal system now on trial along Michigan avenue are reaching us. They seem to be a little unfair. The system has not as yet proved either its inefficiency or its efficiency. It is being tried and developed. We may assume that all automobile drivers who are now protesting against it are doing so because they believe it hampers their movements and the speed of traffic in general. But even these drivers want to see traffic movements facilitated. That is what the entire city wants. It can be achieved only by experiment and education.

The signal system is a medium of such experiment. It is being studied and altered from day to day to perfect the timing of stops, etc., as accurately as possible. Give it time. Two months may not be too much. We can afford a little inconvenience in that period if it means a permanent improvement. If the tests prove otherwise it will then be removed. That's fair enough.

THE FOLLY OF PRICE FIXING.

The Roman emperor Julian in the fourth century A. D. promulgated a law fixing the price of grain. It promoted a rebellion. Charlemagne did likewise in the ninth century, with similar failure. The republic of Argentina passed a law this year fixing a minimum price for cattle. Now we have a dispatch from Buenos Aires telling us that all the big British and American packers there have been forced to suspend operations because of the law. Still some farmers and their political agents in the American northwest are continuing to advocate government action to fix the price of wheat. It is folly. It could not work.

Editorial of the Day

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

Arthur Brisbane, who never fails to improve the opportunity to get in a good word for municipal ownership, mentions the postoffice as a shining example of the success of government ownership and management. Yes, it is a success. So would any business be if some one else furnished all the needed building, paid all the taxes, and made up the deficits whenever necessary. Your municipal and government ownership propagandist always carefully maintains silence regarding the amounts of subsidy that the government pays in from time to time to keep the ways well greased.

Since 1899 there have been but few years when the receipts exceeded the expenditures. Here is a record of the postoffice department for the last three years:

Year	Receipts	Expenditures	Deficit
1920	$4,110,515.33	$4,554,327,009.21	$1,770,482.75
1921	$4,681,421.74	$5,090,873,635.85	$1,572,328.90
1922	$4,835,529.71	$5,408,981,047.00	$2,013,400.29

The deficit, of course, have to be paid for out of taxpayers. The government also had an experiment with management of the railroads and this cost the taxpayers, over and above their increased fares and freight rates, $249,000,000 in 1915, $425,000,000 in 1916, and $778,000,000 for eight months in 1919.

Theoretically the government ought to manage business as well or better than it is managed by private enterprise; practically it never has done so.

THEY LOOK THAT WAY.

A LINE OF TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the guide fall where they may.

BALLADS OF A LEGACY

This is your grandmother's will—

There are the trinkets for you.

With a request to fulfill—

Something quite easy to do.

After a careful review,

"Burn them as income to God" . . .

[High was her heart—and true!]

Legacies often are odd!

Quaint trinkets—trinkets with a trill,

Spelled by ancient mellow;

Bills of a crushed daffodil.

Drop in an album: the clew—

"Love lives the parted years through."

Though flesh returns to the sod.

[Loyal the love that she knew!]

Legacies often are odd!

Programs for waltz and quadrille;

Lectures, a valentine, too;

Even garments shrouded with skill;

Even a tiny white shoe;

Vestments of gray and of blue . . .

"Woe Thou art with me; thy rod" . . .

[Path from the true foot—she drew!]

Legacies often are odd!

L'envoy:

Bells of joy and of rue—

Spiritual paths that she trod:

"Lord, teach me Thy truths anew!"

Legacies often are odd!

LUCIE CALHOUN.

ALL the omens are of a wet, wet winter—

Winter of wet so bitter that it will cause forgetfulness of all other wet winters since that of '19-20.

SATURDAY'S conference of the Governors went up in a blaze of blah. At its best, a behind-closed-doors conference in, after all, barroom stuff. As usual, the Wets, having the better material, made the worse showing, with Governor All, once their white horse, babbling about non-instantaneous change.

MR. COOLIDGE said the expected and statutory thing, and everybody, Dry or Wet, admitted that the Eighteenth is a great little amendment if the persons who are against it will only turn in and be for it. . . . Comic relief was produced by Mr. Haynes, whose job seems to be in a bad way, when he told how nice things are out here.

IF THE TWENTY-NINTH of Point 1 of the anti-drafting agenda be correct, then the Press is asked "to . . . treat the enforcement program commensurate with the gravity of lawlessness"; and it is a reasonable wager that that means something or other.

PARTY NORTH IN CANDOR.

[Telephone Ad in Milwaukee Journal, via E. J. R.]

The popularity of the man or woman who plays is always at its greatest ebb.

MR. LEITCHER'S monograph on Lord Curzon brings to mind the heraldic motto of the latter's house—"Lord Curzon hold what Curzon holds!"

"America will be shoe-shine in boots unless the President . . ."

"The shoe-shine in boots unless the President . . ."

WHILE the President as good as says that America is at least boot-deep in it.

THUMB-NAIL SKETCHES: III

A Winter night, too still to be stirred by drums. Chimes mounds of drifted snow, gleam with a ghostly radiance. The moon,

a slender crescent—a wisp of silver in a pallid sky. Elms a dainty tracery, patterning the pale moon with purple and gold. A star, brilliantly remote and impersonal. . . .

All identity lost in worship, one kneels before the window till the moon faints in the West. The vague dream of one's fourteen years were crystal in the frozen purity of the night into an exaltation too exquisite to be borne.

When life becomes unendurably sudden, the memory of the white integrity of that night is an icy bath that, momentarily, revivifies the hopeless spirit.

JOANNA.

THE PAINED KENTUCKY BERRY, KATIE.

[Verses (Ind.) News on Quib.]

Joe Lockwood returned home from Louisville wearing a new hat. He says Kentucky is surely some place.

TO CARL SANDBURG

"Night from a railroad car-window is a great, dark, soft thing."

Broken across with slabs of light."

Mix on the Lake in the morning

A great, gray, soft thing.

Half-sleeping him of delightful things"

CAROL.

ASSOCIATION of ideas hardly explains why the foregoing brings back to mind one of the two best stories about artists we've ever heard—that of the picture-dealer who, being greeted by a canvasser-carrying caller with "Here is a little thing I've painted for you," replied: "Ah, yes! Just put it, please, outside the door, where the wolf can see it."

THE COMPLETION of our tenth year of steady growth is a fitting occasion for expressing our gratitude and appreciation to the people of Chicago for having made possible the tenth anniversary of the Harmony Cafeterias.

During that time over THIRTY MILLION people have been served in the five Harmony Cafeterias—a total equaling the combined populations of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Los Angeles and the next largest 15 cities of the United States, with the entire population of Canada.

Supreme merit only could win such popular and universal expression of confidence and good will. The foundation of Harmony success was laid upon the maintenance at all times of the highest quality of foods, deliciously appetizing cookery, equipment of modern efficiency, attractive environment, the very lowest prices, AND A DESIRE AT ALL TIMES TO PLEASE AND SATISFY ITS PATRONS.

The firms whose names appear on the right and left of this page represent those who have helped us to establish and uphold these standards of service, quality and economy.

We assure the people of Chicago that, as in the past, so in the future they can depend on our utmost efforts to merit their patronage by maintaining the highest ideals of efficient, courteous and economical service.

KENNICOTT BOYS REFUSE SCHOOL'S BID TO RETURN

Demand Apology or Open
Charges by Himel.

Bud and Pug Kennicott can go back to Maine Township high school in Des Plaines today and stay there just as long as they don't say anything to their teachers. But, Bud and Pug probably won't answer roll call this morning and the temper over the series of suspensions and expulsions is likely to blow harder than ever.

"I told Mr. Hanson Kennicott, father of Roland and Amasa—Bud and Pug—said Dr. C. A. Earle last night after what he termed an 'unofficial' visit to the Kennicott home, 'that if the boys came back and behaved themselves as school boys should, everything probably would be all right.'"

Demand Apology or Charges.
"I told Dr. Earle," said Mr. Kennicott, "that Bud and Pug hadn't behaved as other than well trained children and that they wouldn't be back until the school principal could behave as well trained principals should."

And Mr. Kennicott then explained that Principal Charles Himel should either apologize to Bud and Pug and the three suspended for speaking to the Kennicott youngsters, or make charges warranting the suspensions. "It has been broadcast all over the township that Bud and Pug did something terrible—something that is being kept secret—and it seems to me that Principal Himel should publicly put those reports at rest," he added.

"Bud," said Mr. Kennicott, "was suspended for speaking to the Kennicott youngsters, or make charges warranting the suspensions. "It has been broadcast all over the township that Bud and Pug did something terrible—something that is being kept secret—and it seems to me that Principal Charles Himel should publicly put those reports at rest," he added.

Girls Already Reluctant.
"Pien Hansen and Betty Thompson, the girls who also were temporarily released from class obligations because of chatter with the Kennicott boys, already have been reinstated. But, between the Kennicott and the school, the matter seems to rest on the statements of Mr. Kennicott and Dr. Earle."

KAVANAGH AND FITCH, TWO VETERANS, SEEK RE-ELECTION TO BENCH

MARCUS KAVANAGH. JOSEPH H. FITCH.

While in "group elections" of this character they do not run against each other any more than they do against the other candidates on the ballot, there are two veterans in fifth place on the Republican and Democratic lists for Nov. 6. They are Judge Marcus Kavanagh and Judge Joseph H. Fitch.

Judge Kavanagh has served continuously for twenty-five years as a judge of the Superior court. He went on the bench in 1898 when he was appointed to a vacancy. Since then he has been elected four times. But his judicial experience goes even further back. He was graduated from the law department of the University of Iowa in 1878 and in 1885 was elected district judge in the ninth judicial district of Iowa. He resigned in 1889 to come to Chicago and enter practice with the late Judge John Gibbons.

Judge Fitch, after graduation from the Union College of Law, practiced in Silver City, N. M., for a short time but returned to Chicago in 1889. He was elected to fill a vacancy in the Superior court in 1910 and has been re-elected twice. He was chief justice of the criminal court in 1917 and has served four years in the Appellate court where he is now sitting. The Chicago Bar association report described him as "exceptionally well qualified" for the Superior court.

RAILWAY CLERKS, STATION FORCES GIVEN INCREASES

Wage increases of from 1 to 3 cents per hour were awarded clerks, station forces, dock, warehouse, and platform freight handlers of sixty-five carriers in a decision announced yesterday by the United States railway labor board.

Board of Decision.
The board explained that this decision favored employees, while that of several days ago, in the case of the signal men, refused increases on the ground that present rates of pay and favorable treatment received by the signal men in former decisions made it appear inequitable to make increases. "But it is undoubtedly true," reads the decision, "that present wages and previous wage awards affecting clerks through a long period of years indicate that they have never received pay most which could be termed preferential."

Already Granted by Some.
Voluntary increases for clerks and the other classes of employees who earned less than $7.50 per hour were granted by twenty-nine railroads, the decision brings out. Employees affected by the decision were represented in the negotiations by the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks; Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, the Brotherhood of Station Railway Employees, and by the International Longshoremen's association.

She Hears Him Phoning
Others Girl; He Suffers
Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—It was admitted by the police tonight that a woman suffered last evening from a telephone operator's blunder in connecting his fiancée with another girl. Miss Dorothy Kruckoff, 21, is under arrest.

What dark schemes are these manufacturers plotting with their hand-picked delegation of undertakers invited to their star-chamber conference? Why have they firmly refused to other undertakers, just as honest as any of those who attended, any information as to what was said and done?

Our publicity campaign of the past six months shows that we are not believers in SECRET methods for fighting evil and crime. We think the public is entitled to know all about this secret meeting, the real motive behind it and its true purpose.

But although we have shown more active and genuine interest than any one else in this need for reform and more courage in OPENLY fighting the skeletons and complaints that have brought the undertaking industry into disrepute with all honest people?

Are the funeral directors mere children, incapable of managing their own affairs, incompetent to attack and eradicate the evils in their own profession that are being so severely condemned? If not, why do they feel called upon to accept the leadership, guidance and direction of men outside their profession, to act the role of mere pawns?

No funeral automobiles in Chicago rival in sumptuous quality the big, roomy, richly upholstered closed cars and the superb hearse supplied for every funeral entrusted to our care. Yet they cost no more than the unrepresentable, unreliable limousine cars furnished by other undertakers.

DECATUR'S CITY RULE FOR 1922 COSTS NEAR MILLION AND A HALF

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The department of commerce announced that cost of government for the city of Decatur, Ill., for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1922, amounted to $1,422,624, which was a per capita cost of $28.23. In 1918 the per capita cost was $23.72, and in 1915, $23.25.

The total revenue receipts for 1922 were $1,455,815, or $21.17 per capita. The per capita excess of revenue receipts over governmental costs was therefore, 77 cents. Property taxes represented 70.5 per cent of the total revenue for 1922. The per capita property taxes were $11.91. Earnings of public service enterprises operated by the city represented 7.7 per cent of the total revenue. Business and non-business licenses were 1.1 per cent.

The net indebtedness (funded and floating debt less sinking fund assets) of Decatur was $35.54 per capita for 1922. Assessed valuation of property, subject to ad valorem taxation for the city corporation, was $1,215,475, this being a per capita of $26.64.

WEATHER NEARS
MIDWAY POINT
FOR HEAT, COLD

BY HENRY MAXWELL.

The thermal equinox, or time when the thermometer averages halfway between the hottest days of summer and the coldest days of winter, will be here today or tomorrow. The weather we are now having is a sign of it. This clear, cool air marks the beginning of the run toward winter weather. Henceforth all our storms will be of the winter type, with a funnel-like air, whirl about the storm center and an almost total lack of static, or atmospheric, electricity.

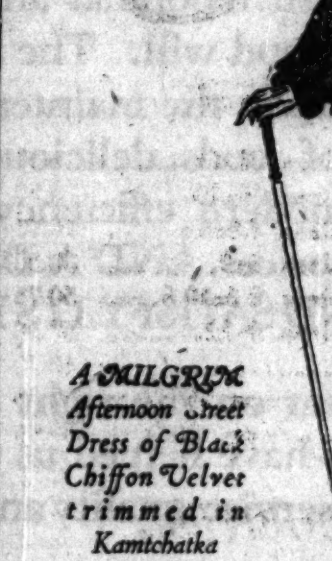

The thermal solstice occurred on the 11th of August. The summer season was cool, and so the solstice fell almost two weeks behind time. Points on the weather calendar differ from those on the astronomical calendar. The latter are fixed by the positions of the sun and moon, which are clocklike in their regularity. But the weather calendar is affected by every wind that blows, and a few warm or cool days too many are enough to throw the cardinal points on the temperature average up or down.

The barometer indicates that summer weather is over. From now on a thunderstorm will be a rare event.

DISTRIBUTION OF SCHOOL FUND TO GO ON AS OF YORE

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 21.—Attempts of the Fifty-third general assembly to provide a new method of distributing Illinois' $3,000,000 common school fund were held "imperative and void," in an opinion given Francis G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction, by Attorney General Brundage and made public here today.

"Proceeding under the law as it existed prior to July 1, 1923," the attorney general advised. The old law, now effective again, provides for distribution of $5,000,000 among school districts according to their school age population, whereas the act now held inoperative and void provides that the sum be distributed according to school attendance, standing of teachers, equipment of schools, and length of terms, etc., a host of detail which Blair declared impossible of obtaining in time to distribute the 1924 fund.

Why should a group of burial casket manufacturers dig up among themselves thousands of dollars, as they did recently, to say the expense of a secret national conference of representative funeral directors to discuss the protests and complaints that have brought the undertaking industry into disrepute with all honest people?

is 40% faster

Any file clerk can file and find correspondence or record cards 40% faster with the L.B. Automatic Index.

One reason is that it has 90% fewer alphabetical subdivisions. And the double-check feature actually makes it harder for the clerk to file wrong than to file right. In a few minutes any one can learn its simple principles.

In your office, you have telephones, typewriters, and adding machines. Equally essential to the up-to-date office is the L.B. Automatic Index. May we demonstrate it in your own office? Or better still call at our store.

NORTHWESTERN OPENS DRIVE FOR 5 MILLION TODAY

Pre-Campaign Gifts Total
$1,700,000.

With more than $1,700,000 already contributed in pre-campaign gifts, Northwestern university's drive for a $5,000,000 building and endowment fund will be formally opened throughout the country today.

Chicago's quota is $1,700,000, and it is expected that this amount will be given by the more than 10,000 alumni living here. The remainder of the fund is to be raised among friends and former students of the university in various parts of the United States.

Attorney Robert W. Campbell is national campaign chairman. He will be assisted in Chicago by Mrs. Carey Culbertson of 744 Gordon terrace, in charge of the women workers, and by the following men:

P. H. Clifton of Butler Brothers, chairman of the liberal arts alumni; Dr. G. V. Webster, medical school alumni; Dr. George G. Knapp, dental school alumni; H. J. Clark, law school alumni; C. D. Hardy of Swift & Co., school of speech alumni; C. E. Lutton of the Clark Teachers' agency, music school alumni; George P. Ellis of Ellis, Austin & Co., commerce school alumni; and Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First Trust and Savings bank, chairman of the special gifts committee for Chicago.

"Success in this campaign will make possible the erection on the Alexander McKilloch Memorial campus on Lake Shore drive the first units of what eventually may be the greatest urban university plant in the world," declared Mr. Campbell yesterday.

"The gift of $500,000 from Mrs. Levy Mayer for a new law building gives assurance that construction will be started on the nine acre tract almost immediately."

Four hundred Northwestern alumni will meet for dinner at Hotel La Salle tonight to discuss the campaign. Similar meetings are being held in other cities throughout the country.

CATER FISHERMEN AND BOOZE. Riotous a local meeting at the foot of East Kinzie street, a squad of police, captured six fishermen and several bottles of liquor Saturday night.

"NAVY DAY" NEXT SATURDAY, WITH EXERCISES HERE

"Navy day" will be celebrated in Chicago next Saturday. Members of the United States naval reserve, former naval men, and others interested in that branch of the service today will begin preparations for the celebration. They have been stirred to action by an official proclamation from President Coolidge, which sets aside next Saturday—Theodore Roosevelt's birthday—for the celebration.

"Our navy is our first line of defense," the proclamation reads. "Our national situation makes the navy particularly important. The traditional devotion of the navy to the highest usefulness and efficiency makes it es-

CHAS. W. HADLEY PUT IN CHARGE OF SMALL SUIT

Charles W. Hadley of Wheaton, former state's attorney of Dupage county, has been given charge of the state fund interest charges against Gov. Len Small which are expected to come up in Springfield this fall. Attorney General Edward Brundage announced yesterday. Mr. Hadley had charge of the prosecution of the cases arising out of the Rock Island vice investigation.

BARTELME RALLY TO OPEN WOMEN'S NEW CLUBROOMS

Members of the Women's Roosevelt Republican club will initiate their new club rooms today with a meeting in behalf of Miss Mary M. Bartelme's candidacy for circuit court judge.

Mrs. Walter S. Brewster will preside. Others who will attend are Mrs. Lyman A. Walton, Mrs. Tiffany Blake, Miss Harriet E. Vittum, Mrs. George S. Haskell, Mrs. George A. Boden, Mrs. Jacob Bauer, Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy, and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald.

A second group, the Mary M. Bartelme independent committee, will meet in Hotel Sherman with Mrs. James A. Campbell as chairman.

IN MEIKLEJOHN'S
EYES THIS NATION
IS UNEDUCATED

No Idea of Teaching Here,
He Says in Lecture.

New York, Oct. 21.—[Special.]—Criticism of America's educational system was expressed today by Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, former president of Amherst college, in an address at Central and Free armagore in Carnegie hall. Discussing "democracy and excellence," Dr. Meiklejohn asserted that only through education can they be unified, although he was pessimistic about the possible unification of the two. Athens, Rome, France, England—other civilizations of the old world—tried the experiment and failed, Dr. Meiklejohn said.

"What shall we do?" he asked. "We can face the facts. I wish I could tell you, as I feel, that we have not in America even the beginning of a system of education as defined in terms of caste."

Latter Day View Criticism.
"We think of education in the terms of the latter day when the great body of the people were slaves of the few. Have we begun to educate the hundreds of millions of people to be free and yet to live together side by side as closely as you are packed here and yet to live together in excellence?"

"We have not begun to think of what education means in those terms. We have not yet put up the buildings for our schools, and inside the schools we are talking more of schemes and methods by which people who do not understand can teach than on methods to give them understanding."

"I wish there might dawn upon the minds of these people the sense of what it means to educate for democracy. Education is a thing that cannot be bought, no matter how much you are willing to put into it. It is a thing you cannot get by paying for."

It, which I think America is willing to do. It cannot be done.

Has Talked to Many Midwives.

"I wish I could tell you how often I have seen fathers come to me with that delusion—men who have spent their lives making money and don't know what to do with it and how to live in terms of it; men who want to get rid of their sons and want some one else to take care of them. They say 'educate my boy' and you can hear the chink in their pockets."

"I know, and you would know if you were in my place, that that boy nine times out of ten, cannot be educated, because of the father he has, and that father has already given him the major part of his education."

An Uneducated People.

"Can't we see what essentially is the educational system of America?"

"We are, in terms of our task, an uneducated people. How shall we educate our people? It is not a task of educating the boy and the girl. It is the task of educating the whole people and getting them ready for such a venture as the human spirit has never entered on before."

Using a good American, Dr. Meiklejohn declared that whenever he wants a taste for the excellent he goes abroad.

Stomach Upset?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by the olive color. They do the work without irritating, cramping or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. Live and be well.

Brocaded Velvet Dresses Are $65 From the Moderately Priced Section

THIS Dress of soft chiffon velvet brocade, because of its gracious hue and lines, might almost be a teagown. It is beaded around neck and sleeves, and the waistline is marked on either side by two striking beaded ornaments. The skirt drops unevenly on both sides which adds greatly to its smartness. It is priced at $65.

Of Many Radiant Hues
The colors in which this Dress is made include king's blue, henna, rose, jade, gold, brown and black. Other velvet Dresses, just as attractive, are also to be found in this Collection.

Where the Fabric of a Suit Makes Its Trimming

THE Suit illustrated at the left gives an effect of straight and pleasing simplicity, with its wrap-around skirt, slim coat and big beaver collar. But it is less simple than it seems, for the fabric itself—a new variety of flammé—is used up and down and crisscross to make a most interesting variation of line. Price, $95.

Other Suits display the use of other fabrics which are distinguished by their unusual weaves and textures.

Originality Marks Recent Hats

Sometimes with a Flower Cluster, Sometimes with Fur

IN THE most recent creations from our French and Debutante Salons, several new vagaries of style may be noted. For, paradoxical though it sounds and seems, a Hat may be brimless—and still brimful of originality. To prove this point, there is the illustration above and to the right. This small Hat, with the brim reduced to nothingness, is of dark brown georgette plaited to cover the entire crown. It fits ever so closely with small braided rosettes on either side.

This other Hat is a cloche of black satin trimmed with a cluster of ivory white gardenias and ermine tails.

CLEOPATRA HAS 1923 IMITATORS, CLERGYMAN SAYS

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON,

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The Ku Klux Klan was called "paganism at bay," fundamentalism and liberalism in theology were called "India rubber words," and the Egyptian queen, Cleopatra, was pictured as the type of the modern pleasure seeker in the association sermon of the National Council of Congregational Churches at the Municipal auditorium today. The preacher was the Rev. S. Parker Cadman, pastor of Central Congregational church, Brooklyn.

"I do not suppose God has turned his kingdom over to the governor of Oklahoma or the Ku Klux Klan, to Magnus Johnson or Jack Johnson, or to any class of the disciples of the various cults," he said. "Jesus believed the kingdom of God would win against all opposition and hate."

Says Farmer Is Exploited.

The exploitation of the farmer and the reason for the farm bloc were described in an address this evening at the Auditorium by Walter Burr, professor of sociology in the Kansas State Agricultural college.

"The plight of the American farmer," he said, "is due to the fact that in the great American game of passing the buck he stands as the last man in the line. The present plight of the farmer is not due to a sudden emergency. It is the culmination of long years of this program of exploitation. Our speculative system has been developed at the big city centers to such a degree that the wheat farmer pays out for the production of a bushel of wheat more than he can receive for it on the market, while you as consumers pay for flour such an exorbitant price that you suppose the farmer must be accumulating a fortune from his golden wheat.

Turns to Politics at Last.

"Absentee landlords, investors in tax free securities and the like, with legal staffs occupying elaborate city offices, have been pocketing their unearned increment and throwing such a burden of taxation upon the man who lives upon the land, that it becomes the last straw to break the camel's back."

"Disheartened with his treatment at the hands of the exploiting politicians, the farmer has undertaken to go into politics for himself."

"There is positively nothing to the report," he told the Associated Press. "Such rumors are merely to weaken

WALTON DENIES HE'LL RESIGN IN FACE OF FOES

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—On the eve of the filing of a report by a committee of the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature, named by that body to investigate the official acts of the governor, Gov. Walton denied that he intends resigning from office Monday morning.

"There is positively nothing to the report," he told the Associated Press. "Such rumors are merely to weaken

my friends and supporters and stampede them. I have no intention of resigning—have never even contemplated such a thing."

The lower house of the state legislature will convene at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon to hear the report of the Disney-Tolbert committee, named to investigate alleged irregularities in state offices and bring impeachment charges. If irregularities were found against state officials subject to impeachment.

The acids of decay can be kept back only by healthy active mouth glands

The acids of decay are forming all the time, all over your teeth.

Nothing can stop them but healthy active mouth glands. If the fluids from these glands are sufficient they will neutralize these acids and wash them away as fast as they form.

But the mouth glands have slowed down from lack of exercise. They need help.

Pebeco gives them this help. It keeps the mouth glands flowing more freely. It keeps a healthy quantity of these healing fluids constantly flowing between the teeth, neutralizing the acids as fast as they form.

Use Pebeco today and begin to get your teeth and mouth in a really clean condition.

WILSON'S VIEWS ON LEAGUE TO BE PRINTED AS BOOK

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Woodrow Wilson's arguments for the league of nations, as contained by him in public addresses and in White House conferences, have been compiled and set down in compact form by Hamilton F. Foley in a book which will be issued by Princeton university tomorrow.

The work has been approved by the former President, who, in a letter to Mr. Foley, hopes it "will be of service to all who wish to understand the league of nations and the vital issues which arise out of the attitude of the United States toward the league."

Mr. Foley, in a large measure, has chosen those excerpts from the war-time President's utterances that are intended to answer criticisms directed at the league. "Woodrow Wilson's Case for the League of Nations" is the title.

"Every word in this book," Mr. Foley points out in the foreword, "is Mr. Wilson's own word, and all are here used in explanation of that detail of the subject in which he used them."

From stenographic minutes of a conference with senators in the White House in August, 1919, and from the official record of thirty-seven addresses to the public, Mr. Foley has extracted sentences and paragraphs and put them together so that virtually every argument Mr. Wilson advanced on any particular point is given.

Also there have been appended the covenant of the league, copies of cables from William H. Taft and Elihu Root addressed to Mr. Wilson in Paris and which suggested changes in certain portions of the text which, it is pointed out, subsequently were adopted; two addresses the former President delivered in Paris, and an interpretation of article X.

CHINA'S CUNNING WINS TRIUMPH OVER POWERS

Diplomats Abandon Demands for Police, Cash.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PEKING, Oct. 21.—China has won hands down in the Lincheng case, since the powers find it impossible to withdraw their hasty recognition of Tiao K'un-hsiang's recognition of the Peking government open to attack and also possibly would affect trade.

The net result of the diplomatic surrender is that Tiao Chung Yu goes unpunished for his responsibility in the bandit captures, remaining completely in Shanghai with the rank of marshal, thus virtually dominating the province, while retaining his grip on the Shanghai army.

Apparently also the powers are about to abandon their demand for a foreign railway police, accepting possibly joint foreign supervision, with control allotted to the Chinese.

Regarding indemnities, the powers are inclined to discuss a compromise between their demands and China's offer.

Bandit Plot Exposed.
Three movements in the neighborhood of Shanhaiwan, on the frontier of Manchuria, have caused apprehension. The foreign powers have sent officers to make inquiries.

Coincident with the demand of the American chambers of commerce for increased military and naval forces in China comes a story of a plot by Honan bandits to hold up the Peking-Hankow express, being encouraged by the success in the Lincheng case. Documents were captured to show that the plot sought to discredit the Peking government, being inspired by enemies of that nation.

YALE MISSION FLEES

BY JOHN FOWELL.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

SHANGHAI, Oct. 21.—All foreigners in Changhai, Honan province,

China, where the important American Yale mission, supported by Yale university, is located, have been ordered to leave for Hankow. Fighting has been renewed near the city.

Chinese soldiers tried to board a Japanese cargo steamer at Chungking on Oct. 15, when the Japanese marines on board were forced to open fire, killing more than fifty Chinese soldiers and wounding and drowning more.

It is also reported that two British missionary women who have been prisoners of bandits in Honan province nearly four weeks now have been taken to a practically inaccessible fortress at the town of Lepoche.

The British government has sent a consul to Loyang for a special interview with Gen. Wu Pei Fu in an effort to get the Chinese to take action. The result is that more soldiers have been sent to the bandit district, but four generally is felt here for the lives of the women, owing to the cold weather and treatment at the hands of the bandits.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—(Tribune Radio.)—M. Dussant, the Swiss minister here, called on Premier Poincare yesterday to renew the protest against France's sudden elimination of the free domesticated wines on the frontier and the moving up of the customs to the political boundary. From Bern it is reported that the Swiss government is preparing to take reprisals against France unless Premier Poincare consents to allow the world court to arbitrate the question. Switzerland may bar French wines, it is said.

"SUPER-SUITS"

The far-reaching effect of a new quality-standard in clothes for men

EVERY few days bring new proofs of the fundamental results produced by our "New Order of Things" in clothes for men.

This uplift in clothing standards has been little short of revolutionary in its effect on the habits and ideas of those who have always ranked among the most exacting in the matter of dress.

For some months our largest patronage has come from those who habitually select their overcoats from the best grade standard of ready-to-wear, but who have hitherto refused to wear suits that were not custom-tailored. The supreme quality of the "super-suits" that we are now offering has convinced them that it is now time to break a rule from which they have never before deviated.

For the first time in their lives, men of the most exacting and fastidious type are abandoning the traditions that prescribed "clothes tailored-to-measure." Nothing "dies harder" than a tradition—only a revolutionary change can kill it. But when you examine the superb material and workmanship that go into these "super-suits," you will credit us with one of the few revolutions that have been wholly constructive in their effect.

T. R. NEARLY HAD DUEL OUT WEST IN COWBOY DAYS

New York, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Though the biographies of Theodore Roosevelt mention the fact that as a young man in the west he had trouble with a French nobleman, it was just been revealed that the issue developed a formal challenge to a duel. Roosevelt accepted the challenge, but the Frenchman failed to carry it out.

Proof of this romantic episode has been brought to light through the discovery of a letter, hitherto unpublished, which Col. Roosevelt wrote. It all happened in 1885, Roosevelt, then 25 years old, was beginning his career as a "cow puncher" on his ranch in Dakota. The Marquis de Mores had established an abattoir at Bismarck. The marquis was about Roosevelt's own age.

The letter by Roosevelt to the marquis, now published for the first time, reads: "Most emphatically I am not your enemy; if I were you would know it, for I would be an open one. As your final words, however, seem to imply a threat, it is due to myself to say that the statement is not made through any fear of possible consequences to me, so I, too, as you know, am always on hand and ever ready to hold myself accountable in any way for anything I have said or done."

Expect Jury to Exonerate Webb in Poisoning Case

New York, Oct. 21.—[Special].—The Westchester county grand jury, investigating the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Gertrude Webb at the Westchester-Billmore Country club on Sept. 25, is expected to exonerate her husband, Charles Webb, in its presentation to Supreme Court Justice Joseph Morschner, at White Plains, tomorrow morning.

LABOR BOOSTS, THEN ATTACKS TAXATION ISSUES

Speakers at a meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday in one breath boosted the proposition to increase school taxation and attacked the proposed taxation for the purpose of developing the new Chicago sociological gardens. The fate of both measures is to be decided in an election on Nov. 6.

President John Fitzpatrick asserted that the Tax Tribune was trying to operate the public schools on a "factory basis" by not favoring the additional tax. Fitzpatrick charged that the real purpose of the activities of the Arden Shore club in "rehabilitating" poor children is not for the children's future educational welfare but so that they may become "fodder for the industries."

SANITARY BOARD TO ADJUST FLOOD DAMAGE WANTED

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—All pending damage suits against the city of Chicago resulting from Illinois river floods will be promptly disposed of by a special sanitary district commission, it is announced by the McCormick bill.

This, with other guarantees of protection to be offered to the residents, would, it was predicted, do much toward composing differences that have developed in Illinois as obstacles to the latest to gulf inland waterway project contemplated by the McCormick bill.

As chairman of the United States senate committee now cruising down the course of the proposed channel, the senator, in a telegram to William J. Healy, president of the sanitary district of Chicago, tonight urged upon the district the expediency of completing without delay plans for an early and equitable settlement of the just claims of valley farmers for damages.

"Under conditions which have existed for many years, the source of litigation inevitably has been slow, costly, and unsatisfactory," said Senator McCormick's telegram. "We are concerned, all of us, to bring an end to the differences between the Illinois people interested in the building of the lake to the gulf waterway. We all of us wish to see justice done.

"This is necessary to carry out our great project. We must seek in Illinois that unity of purpose and accommodation of differences which is essential to the prompt and favorable action by congress."

Moore's Objection.
The suggestion is designed to meet objections advanced by Congressman Henry T. Moore, who joined the party last night at Boardman.

Mr. Moore said he would fight the McCormick bill unless it provided federal aid to elaborate on the levee system on the Illinois river and gave assurance that the Mississippi river commission would gain supervision over the Illinois river.

A third stipulation by Mr. Moore was that Chicago should, within a reasonable time, construct a sewage disposal plant that would remove pollution of the river.

This already is contemplated by the proposed legislation. On the other points, Senator McCormick expressed confidence it would not be difficult to "get together."

The senatorial party, aboard the government steamer Mississippi, stopped here an hour this afternoon and was greeted by a big crowd, gathered from four counties.

A public hearing will be held at St. Louis tomorrow.

Fire in 3 Spots at Once
Laid to Georgia Firebug

Quitman, Ga., Oct. 21.—Fire that broke out in three different parts of Quitman at 1:40 o'clock this morning and believed to have been a plot to destroy this city, caused more than $100,000 loss.

PORTUGAL DEAF TO PLEA OF U. S. CABLE COMPANY

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The request of the Western Union Telegraph company for permission to land its New York-Rome cable at the Azores has practically been refused by the Portuguese parliament.

This American project, which is bitterly opposed by the English cable companies, who have a monopoly on the Mediterranean cables, has been purposely ignored for more than a year by parliamentary committees.

In spite of various representations by Minister Dreyfus to the government, parliament definitely shelved the request today. As parliament is being dissolved on account of the political crisis, it will be months before it can be considered by a "new parliament."

The cable will now be landed at the Canary islands.

Say, Daddy, where does the wind begin?

HOW- can his question be answered?

KIPLING paid an immortal tribute to natural curiosity as an educational factor when he said:

"I had six honest serving men
They taught me all I knew,
Their names are What and Why and When
And How and Where and Who."

Every growing child is a veritable bundle of questions. He is curious to know many important things, such as: What is water made of? Why do we get tired? What is inside of a locomotive? What makes our hearts beat? And educators and psychologists agree that this natural thirst for knowledge in youth should not be stunted nor discouraged but should be cultivated and stimulated.

Much of the child's future depends upon it—his capacity for learning, for self-improvement, his success in school today, and in business and conduct of life tomorrow.

Don't starve his little mind. It is impossible for you, undoubtedly, to answer the thousand and one questions which a child will ask; but you can place the correct answers at his disposal in very simple and most interesting form and with illustrative pictures—pictures that teach—ten thousand of them.

Not only are his questions answered but much that he should know and would never read, were it not so simply readable and interesting, is contained in the

Book of Knowledge

Your child should have it—if he or she is old enough to read. You can learn what a useful, complete, authoritative work it is, what it contains and how it is endorsed by leading educators. Why it is as interesting to the child of six as to one sixteen, or even to their parents.

We will gladly send you a free booklet, containing four complete sections from the Book of Knowledge with one hundred of the pictures taken from it—there are ten thousand of these "pictures that teach" in the volumes themselves. See it and judge for yourself—right now, while you think of it, simply clip or tear out the coupon below—mail it today and we will send you this interesting free booklet by return mail.

FRENCH PUT UP MILLIONS TO GET RUSSIAN GRAINS

Soviet Envoy Wins Aid of Paris Bankers.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Copyright: 1923: By The Chicago Tribune.)

PARIS, Oct. 21.—(Tribune Radio.)—

Director Scheinmann of the Soviet Republic State bank in an interview today told The Tribune Russia is preparing to recommence its gigantic exports of wheat and flax immediately and expects soon to resume the production of minerals and oil.

"A French syndicate of bankers has just made a deposit of 100,000,000

francs ($2,500,000) with the Moscow government as credit for wheat and flax for the coming year," M. Schein-mann said. "The Soviet bank has declared to finance exports to France for the coming year to the amount of

$2,500,000 gold rubles ($25,000,000), and the local value of the business contracted for France in the coming year is 250,000,000 francs ($12,500,000)."

Dollar Inflation.

M. Scheinmann said Europe is suffering from "dollar inflation" because every one is hoarding dollars and therefore the dollar is overvalued.

Many women prefer these fine silk

hosiery to silk for hard wear. Reg-

FRENCH PUT UP MILLIONS TO GET RUSSIAN GRAINS

Soviet Envoy Wins Aid of Paris Bankers.

By HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1923, By The Chicago Tribune.)
PARIS, Oct. 21.—(Tribune Radio.)—Director Scheinmann of the Soviet Republic State bank in an interview today told The Tribune Russia is preparing to recommence its grain exports of wheat and flax immediately and expects soon to resume the production of minerals and oil.
"A French syndicate of bankers has just made a deposit of 100,000,000 francs ($4,250,000) with the Moscow government as credit for wheat and flax for the coming year," M. Scheinmann said. "The Soviet bank has decided to finance exports to France for the coming year to the amount of $4,000,000 gold rubles ($25,000,000) and the total value of the business conducted for France in the coming year is $50,000,000 francs ($15,625,000)."
"Blame Dollar Inflation."
M. Scheinmann said Europe is suffering from "dollar inflation" because every one is hoarding dollars and pounds sterling, thereby making local money worthless and tightening the financial market.

"There are probably millions of counterfeit dollars hidden away in tea shops, stock exchanges, and other hiding places in central Europe today, and counterfeiters are doing a good office business because small tradesmen and peasants are unable to tell the difference between real and bogus foreign currency," said M. Scheinmann.
"This money never finds its way to the banks, so experts cannot detect the fraudulent paper."
M. Scheinmann is satisfied with his visit here, although in the event that he does not obtain authorization from the French government to establish a branch Soviet bank in Paris, he must continue business through the Warsaw bank branch.
Plans Soviet Bank in United States.
The refusal of governments to cooperate in the financial operations between the respective countries is doing their citizens an injustice and working hardship on the exporters and importers," M. Scheinmann said. "French business men must now handle financial affairs with Russia via London, which enables English bankers to reap a percentage from every transaction and also be familiar with all commercial operations made." In the United States we are represented by the Guarantee Trust company, but we soon expect to open our own branch."
M. Scheinmann said the Soviet bank's capital is $5,000,000 gold rubles ($31,250,000) and estimated that $50,000,000 gold rubles ($312,500,000) are held by Russians throughout Russia, chiefly in dollars and pounds.
As soon as France begins to get delivery of our wheat and flax the ruble must be quoted on the Paris bourse," M. Scheinmann said. He admitted he had not yet obtained that privilege.

MOSCOW OPENS BIG FIGHT FOR NORWAY LABOR

But Workers Remember Broken Words.

By JOHN STEELE.
(Copyright, 1923, By The Chicago Tribune.)
CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 21.—(Tribune Radio.)—The national congress of the Norwegian labor party in Christiania in a fortnight will be the scene of a struggle for control of Norwegian labor, between Moscow and Norway.
It is believed that Norway will win, despite intensive propaganda, carried on by Moscow, taking advantage of the hard times and trade depression from which Norway now is suffering.

Confidence in Russia.
In spite of the fact that the Norwegian labor party is affiliated with the Third International, Dr. Fritz Frensdal, editor of the Aftenposten, a leading Norwegian paper, says he does not believe the Norwegian workers are communists at heart. They are Socialists, certainly, like most European workers, but they have been led away by the promises of Moscow, which failed to materialize, and now many are shocked by the attack of Moscow on religion.
The leaders of the extreme element are Mr. Scheffo, leader of the communist party in the Storting, and Mr. Tannum, editor of the Aftenposten, an organ of the party.
Gomperz of Norway.
Against them is Mr. Magnusson, moderate trade union and Socialist leader, who may be called the Gomperz of Norway.

Uptown's Third Annual Fashion Show Opens

Uptown Chicago, that territory north of Wilson avenue, is prepared for the opening tonight of the third annual fashion review of the Uptown Chamber of Commerce. The exhibition will open in the Broadway armory, Broadway and Thorndale avenue, and will last all week. The attendance record of 105,000 persons made at last year's show, is expected to be broken.

Your Dinner Tonight.

This famous hotel dish cooked for you by a high-salaried chef; not an ordinary "canned food!"

College Inn Chicken a la King

Better than steak and potatoes

Have This Famous Dinner for a few cents—at home

Feast at home tonight upon a dish which has delighted connoisseurs from all the world!—Chicken a la King as served at the College Inn.

And the cost is less than your customary dinner of steak, roast, or chops! Try it!

For a few cents

A special process brings this savory dish to your table with all its richness and flavor. Only choice meat of specially selected pullets is used. Then, fine fresh mushrooms—specially cultivated—pimentos from Spain, rich cream.

At any good hotel or restaurant it would cost $2.50 for three. And even could you prepare it at home, the cost would be three times what your grocer asks.

Plenty for 3 to 6

Just as it comes, one can serve it for two. Served on toast, enough for three.

By adding cream gravy you serve six generously.

No mess or cooking

You do not fuss or plan or cook. Under my supervision that has been done for you.

Simply open the tin, heat and serve. In less than 5 minutes the feast is prepared.

For tonight—

Surprise and delight your family with this supremely tempting dinner—tonight.

A rich and tempting change from ordinary dinners!

At your grocer's or delicatessen.

Which Feet are Yours?

ON any street car or suburban train you will see just such rows of misshapen feet as those pictured above. It is not looks alone that matters—painful feet or broken arches cause constant suffering as well as awkwardness and embarrassment. Foot ills are not a necessary result of daily exertion. The foot is made for work and service and will stand much abuse. A little common sense treatment—simply placing the bones of the foot's arch into proper position—will conquer your foot faults.

Don't Grow Prematurely Old

GOOD feet give you vim and eagerness for daily accomplishment; sore feet constantly drain upon human vitality. Gaze about you and note the lines of nervousness and fatigue written upon the faces of men and women—most of them Foot Sufferers who do not realize that Foot Troubles eventually cause lameness, pain in limbs and general rheumatic condition. No other affliction is more likely to make you "old before your time."

No Braces—No Arch Supports

FOR the restoration of disfigured feet and broken arches no method has proved so effective as the new Post System now used by the National Health Institute of Chicago. The process requires NO APPLIANCES or MEDICAL APPLICATION. It is a system whereby the bones of the disturbed foot and arch are placed in normal position by the hands of an expert, and you need never wear an artificial brace or support again. Of 15,000 cases, 97% received permanent relief.

Foot Examination Free

We charge you nothing for an examination. After we look at your feet we will give you a close estimate of the cost of giving you PERMANENT RELIEF. This is not an experiment with us. Your foot troubles are over forever if you

SYNOPSIS.

Valerie Raleigh has spent the greater part of her life in New York. On her last visit to the city of the Big Apple, she is surprised to find that she is being visited by a young man who she has never met before. He is a young man of the name of Gordon, and he is a very handsome young man. Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man. He is a young man of the name of Gordon, and he is a very handsome young man. Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man.

THE CEREMONY

It was Valerie who answered Perry's question. "I don't think B. G. will feel we can leave him on guard here." Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man. He is a young man of the name of Gordon, and he is a very handsome young man. Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man.

The morning after their arrival Gordon was on a business errand and requesting her to take Valerie home that some of the mysterious happenings of the evening, as well as the nursery. Anne tells Valerie that she is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man.

Gordon's little daughter, who was with her at the time of the ceremony, was very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man. He is a young man of the name of Gordon, and he is a very handsome young man. Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man.

"So it's to be a quiet wedding on Monday," Valerie went on. "With Perry being as subdued as he can," B. G. parenthetically commented.

"We ought to be home by four," B. G. mused aloud. "That will give McFadden and Mrs. Scott time to get their reception of their guests before the ceremony."

"Do we have to have a reception?" The future Mrs. Gordon asked the question bluntly. "Haven't we other things to do than to have a reception?"

"Oh, not for the wedding," Valerie said. "But for the ceremony. B. G. reassured her. "But I suppose we shall have to have a reception of some kind. Valerie understood that this experiment, so hard for her, would be to make her follow him to the hall for a final look at the bride."

"There's one thing I want to say," she said. "I want to say that I am very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man. He is a young man of the name of Gordon, and he is a very handsome young man. Valerie is very much interested in him, and she is very much surprised to find that he is a very successful young man."

"I thought of that," he said quickly, almost not care to have his wife's portrait in that room almost a reflection on his own. Valerie understood that this experiment, so hard for her, would be to make her follow him to the hall for a final look at the bride."

"Oh, no," she explained. "You entirely to say this: I was afraid that out of consideration you had put that picture somewhere else. It was her first tribute to him, but perhaps she had these two pictures exactly where there."

His face changed and warmed. "I should object very much if you had that picture in your room. He held out his hand, and as she gave warmly upon it."

"I should have felt rather lost without that picture. He held out his hand, and as she gave warmly upon it."

CATTLE CRISIS IMPERILS TRADE OF ARGENTINA

Australia and New Zealand Crowd Ahead.

BY JOHN WHITE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 21.—Argentina's export in price fixing has momentarily destroyed the republic's preponderant position as a shipper of chilled and frozen beef. It has removed from the European markets the most serious competitor of Australia and New Zealand, which since the war have been trying to persuade Great Britain to grant them preferential concessions to enable them to compete with Argentine beef in the Smithfield market.

The managers of three American packing plants today expressed to Tax Tatters their willingness and eagerness to resume killing the export type of steers as soon as they receive from the government an indication on how this can be done under the present law. They reiterated that they would be no attempt to retaliate or boycott, as is being charged by certain Argentine newspapers.

Aimed at Foreigners.

The passage of the law which ties the hands of the foreign companies while making no regulations for local business is the outcome of an anti-packer campaign, which sought for a year to make all foreign companies pay through the nose while Argentine landowners remained untaxed.

The minister of agriculture and other cabinet ministers frankly believe the law is unconstitutional. The minimum price law is so worded that the packers could not be represented on a price fixing commission without admitting all foreign packing plants.

U. S. TO CRACK LASH OVER EVADERS OF TAX ON SALES OF JEWELRY

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—To compel prompt filing of returns and with the purpose of imposing penalties wherever disregard or evasion of the law is disclosed, the bureau of internal revenue has begun a nation-wide drive for the collection of delinquent taxes on the sale of jewelry. Field agents in all internal revenue collection districts are checking not only sales by jewelers but by persons and firms engaged in businesses in which the sale of jewelry is only a part. Such list includes hardware stores, antique shops, bric-a-brac stores, millinery shops, cigar stores, druggists, dealers in optical goods, department stores, pawn brokers, mail order houses, stationers, etc. Investigation in a few widely scattered cities shows that a large percentage of such persons and firms have failed to make returns and pay the tax.

The jewelry tax (on real or imitation) is 5 per cent of the sales price, monthly return and payment of which are required of the dealer.

here are combined in one trust, since the law provides that one member of such a commission may be appointed by the "corporation of the packers."

Cattle Men Fix Price.

The result is that the price fixing commission is composed solely of representatives of the cattle interests. The cattle brokers, who in this country act as go between for the breeders and packers, also are not represented on the commission. They have notified the cattle raisers to cease sending animals to the market.

Unless a solution is found within the next two or three weeks Argentina will cease to be an exporter of beef, because the packers have supplies for only that long.

About 2,000,000 head of cattle have been slaughtered in Argentina during the nine months ended Sept. 30, which was 1,000,000 more than in the corresponding period of last year.

BELEIVED SHOOTER VICTIM.

An unidentified, shabbily dressed man, apparently a victim of alcoholism, was found dead in front of 535 North Wells street.

Milestones on the road to BOSTON

SOME advertisers never reach the Boston market. They start equipped with all the qualifications for success. But somewhere on the way they lose the road—the time and energy and money devoted to the preparation and the launching of a fine campaign secure indifferent results because they have been misdirected.

Yet the road to successful advertising in Metropolitan Boston is unusually easy to find and follow. The very fact that it is different marks it more clearly. The advertiser who studies Boston before his newspapers are selected sets foot at once upon this road; if his choice is guided by the knowledge gained, each dollar spent for advertising will bring the maximum return in business.

Be sure you know Boston

Study of Boston and its people will disclose two milestones which infallibly mark the way to profitable advertising in the Boston market. The first one is the fact that Boston's people are divided into two great groups. The second is that each Boston paper is built to reach one or the other of these groups—not both.

This phenomenon of a divided population has always marked Boston apart from other cities. From birth its citizens are so influenced by sentiment, association and environment that they inevitably become a part of one group or the other. And so different—so clearly marked are the preferences of the people in these two groups that no Boston newspaper can be so conducted as to satisfy both.

Importance of the Herald-Traveler

Complete coverage of the Boston market demands that both groups of Boston's people be effectively reached. Because the Herald-Traveler has no counterpart among all the Boston papers its circulation represents a market which no other paper can reach.

These are the facts that will direct you to successful advertising in Boston. To see the picture completely, to understand the value of the Herald-Traveler circulation as a potential market for your product send for the booklet, "The Road to Boston." It is furnished free upon receipt of a request on business stationery.

FEAR

"IT MAY BE a little unusual," said Bruce Barton to David Lloyd George, "but I would really like to know how you slept during the war."

Read Lloyd George's amazing reply as reported on page 14 of The American Magazine for November, on sale today.

How can one man learn to conquer Fear—while another is baffled, even terrified, by the petty problems of his daily life?

What is worrying you, anyway? Are you afraid that old age will come on, before other people accept you at your true value?

At forty, William Heath was still cashier in a small country bank where he had worked hard for nineteen years. Today he is chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago; one of the most prominent positions in America.

Is your principal worry about money?

With her husband hopelessly ill, and three small children to support, Mrs. Alice Foote McDougall started in business with $35. Now she supplies coffee, tea and cocoa to 2,000 hotels and other large institutions.

—Page 35, The American Magazine for November

Are you afraid that you will never own your home?

Joseph H. Paist has spent his life among people who have overcome this fear. He tells how more than six million families who thought they couldn't possibly manage to buy homes are nevertheless doing it.

—Page 44, The American Magazine for November

Or is it the greatest Fear of all—the Fear of Death?

A country doctor has found that even this Fear can be conquered. "I have seen scores of men and women walk up to the throne of the Almighty," he writes. "It is a magnificent thing to see an old-timer die—launching out into eternity as a sailor launches into the sea, sure of his boat, which is Faith."

—Page 55, The American Magazine for November

In the presence of the courageous we gain courage. Meeting people like these in The American Magazine, you and I can conquer most of our common fears. For in every number of this magazine, leaping out from the printed page—two ties in Valley.

Is Life—and Life without Fear!

Purdue was held to a 7 to 7 score by Washburn after the Boilermakers apparently had the game won. An interrupted forward pass late in the game resulted in a touchdown for the Little Giants and the goal was kicked for the single point necessary for the tie. Purdue will visit Washburn again.

As a result of conference games played so far this season, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Chicago remain undefeated. Iowa, Purdue, Indiana, Northwestern and Ohio State have been defeated, and with the remote possibility of going into a two or three cornered tie for the honors, all are eliminated from championship contention.

RETAIL ADVERTISERS, in Chicago know the local newspaper situation from every angle.

They are thoroughly familiar with circulation figures, reader interest, and all the other elements that determine advertising productiveness.

Local display advertisers in Chicago during the first nine months of 1923 gave the Evening American an increase of 1,060,415 lines over the same period of 1922. This gain in local display advertising exceeds that of the next evening newspaper by 63,729 lines.

Merely another advertising record made possible by the tremendous buying power of the Evening American's "under 40" reader audience

START OF GREAT INTERNATIONAL RACE WON BY ZEV; SOME OF THE 50,000 SPECTATORS. This picture gives an idea of the crowd at Belmont Park and at the same time shows the horses as the barrier lifted, Papyrus on the outside and Zev on the rail. Papyrus' slight lead was overcome in the first fifty yards.

NOTRE DAME SMOTHERS PRINCETON TIGERS ON THEIR OWN GRIDIRON BY SCORE OF 25 TO 2.—The picture, taken as Ewing of Princeton was carrying the ball, shows how the Notre Dame line smashed through and stopped the play before it got fairly started. A glance at the lineman shows Princeton lost two yards on the play.

HEADS NURSES.—Jeanne Brown of Canada, who will talk at surgeon's congress.

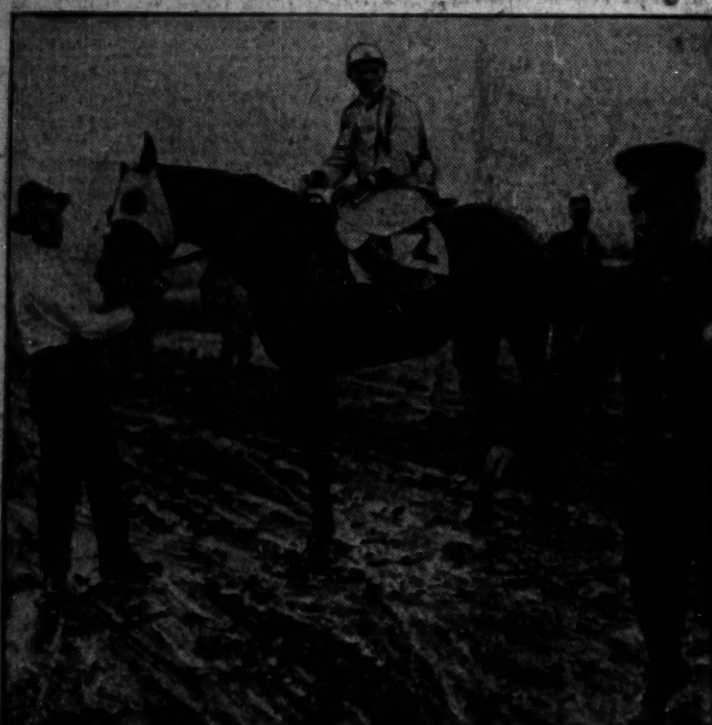

ZEV LEADS BY A LENGTH AT THE QUARTER MILE POLE.—This picture gives an opportunity for a comparison of the action of the two horses, both of which are shown with all four feet off of the ground.

RACING CAR SMASHES THROUGH FENCE AND HITS PARKED AUTO.—The picture was taken at the Hawthorne race track after Lloyd M. Graves, Waupun, Wis., driver of the racing car, had been severely hurt and three spectators slightly injured.

ZEV AND HIS JOCKEY AFTER THE VICTORY.—The particular interest in this picture is that it shows the muddy condition of the race track.

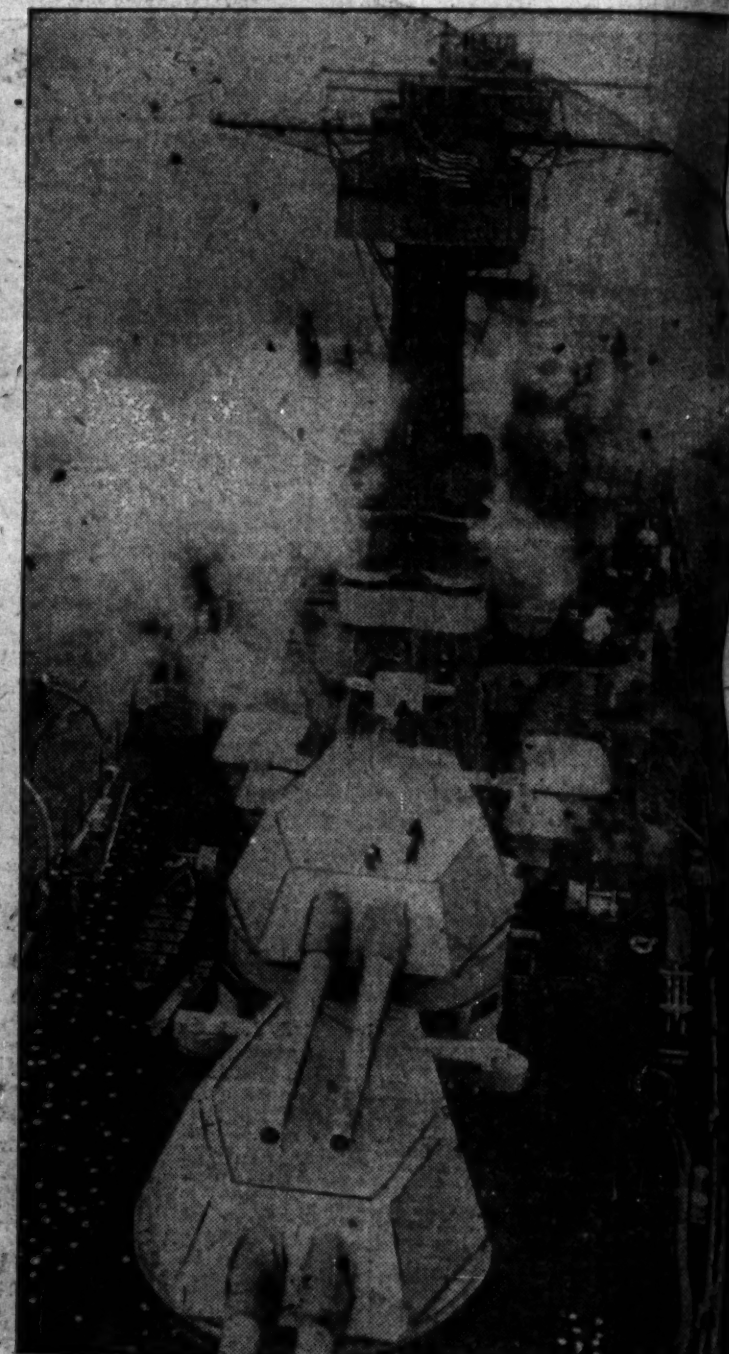

COUPLE FOUND DEAD IN GAS FILLED ROOM.—Arthur Thorn, 16 South Leavitt street, and Bernice Halverson, 26 South Loomis street, died together.

CANTON BULLDOGS DEFEAT CHICAGO BEARS AT CUB'S PARK BY TWO GOALS FROM FIELD.—The picture shows "Dutch" Sternaman, former Illinois player, making an attempt at a place kick. The ball is in the air, but it failed to go over the crossbars. Henry, the Bulldogs' kicker, was more successful and his team won, 6 to 0.

NEW "QUEEN OF THE NAVY" ON WAY TO YARDS.—The U. S. S. Colorado, nation's most powerful and newest battleship, on way to have fire control installed.

MAN MAZE OF TINY BATTERIES, SURGEONS HEAR

Death Balancing of Potentials, Theory.

BY JOHN HERRICK.

Man is no more than a mechanism run by electricity and chemical reaction—a machine made up of twenty-eight trillion electric cells.

This picture was drawn last night by Dr. George W. Crile of Cleveland, known for his work on the thyroid gland, who spoke at Orchestra hall before 3,000 members of the American College of Surgeons, now attending their thirteenth annual convention.

Emotions, love, hate, fear, are but small losing currents of electricity through certain paths, he said.

Each Cell a Battery.

Through Dr. Crile's theory, if true, life itself may be created by human hands.

Each cell of the body, 25,000,000,000,000 of them, is a tiny wet battery, with negative and positive poles, according to the surgeon. The brain cells are the most positive, the cells of the liver the most negative.

The greater the difference in electrical potential between positive and negative the greater energy the body possesses. With death the difference of potential vanishes. All is equilibrium. Fatigue makes this difference less. Sleep restores it.

The electrical machine is a thousand times more minute and delicately arranged than the most delicate instrument made by man, Dr. Crile asserted.

"We consider that electricity keeps the flame of life burning in the cell and the flame—oxidation—supplies electricity used in operating the animal," he continued.

Death Is Energy Balanced.

"There is no more energy per man in the living than in the nonliving. In the living, energy is captured and stored and made to run the organism; in the nonliving the same energy exists, but it balances, is equalized, inert, nonliving."

"Two streams of water flow swiftly, each making the lowest level, equilibrium. One is caught and retarded, thereby building up a potential energy of position as in a mill race; in its further course this retardation is suddenly released and in the discharge of this acquired potential energy of position a water wheel is turned, heat or light, or electricity, is generated."

Energy Stored in Tiny Layer.

The energy which makes Babe Ruth hit homers, which drives the feet of the business man to work, which works the fingers of the typist, which causes Jack Dempsey to shoot his right for a knockout, is stored in a layer surrounding each of these twenty-eight trillion cells, a layer 1-425,000 of an inch thick.

Though this layer is only one atom thick, it would have, if spread out, an area of nine acres, according to Dr. Crile.

Dr. Crile concluded by stating that "although the theory has stood the crucial test of the surgical clinic, it is not yet proven and will not be proven until the equivalent of a living cell is constructed, until the equivalent of life is made artificially."

Install Dr. Ochsner as President.

Installation of Dr. Albert J. Ochsner, head of Augustana hospital of Chicago, as president of the college, taking the place of Dr. Harvey Cushing of Boston, famous brain surgeon, presided Dr. Crile's address, which was given in memory of Dr. John B. Murphy.

Standard hospitals, standard physicians, standard nurses, and standard methods of keeping case records are marking the passing of the aliphoid program and the mushroom hospital, declared Dr. Ochsner.

"Standardization has enabled us to look forward to hospitals that are first class throughout instead of only in spots," he said in his inaugural address. "It enables hospitals to eliminate from their staffs men who are hopelessly unfit, but who have stayed on because there was no standard of education, experience, or ability by which they could be measured."

Moderate Check on Staff.

In the hospitals of the future, however, doctors will be rated by a definite known standard. Hospital blue books will be as common as the hotel and book found on the Pullman car. The surgeon will no more be able to escape his mortality record than the cowboy in the war could wipe out his A. W. O. L.'s on his service record.

As an example of the methods being used to keep the work of the surgeon up to the mark, is open the surgeon's eyes to the defects of his own practice.
